Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely a liturgical book. The text is arranged in two columns. The left column begins with a large initial 'M' and contains several lines of text. The right column begins with a large initial 'D' and also contains several lines of text. The script is dense and characteristic of the period.

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin or a related language. The text is arranged in two columns on the left page. It begins with a large initial 'I' and contains several lines of dense, cursive handwriting. The script is dark and somewhat faded, typical of an old manuscript. The text appears to be a liturgical or legal document, given the formal structure and the use of large initials.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, similar to the left page. It also consists of approximately 20 lines of text. The script is consistent with the left page, suggesting they are from the same manuscript. There are some faint markings and a small number '118' visible on the right side of the page.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a liturgical or legal document. The text is arranged in approximately 15 horizontal lines. The script is dense and difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the age of the manuscript. Some words are written in larger, bolder letters, possibly indicating the start of a new section or a specific name. The ink is dark and the parchment shows signs of wear and discoloration.
